

Exploring our Space centre (in our outside house)

The children are all enjoying playing in our space centre (in the outside house). This child found a moon shape key on the keyboard and he told me 'this makes the rocket blast off!' Then he said to me 'this computer controls the rocket, let me see where we are going to (he picked up the phone) 'Ah we are going to Mars!'